The Wilder Steamship Company will pay the usual quarterly dividend on the 27th.

Sheriff Wilcox of Kauai was one of the outgoing passengers on the Mariposa yesterday.

Wilder & Co. are going to have an elaborate sign over the front door of their steamship office.

Material for the construction of the new Love block on Fort street is being hauled to the ground.

Rev. Dillon will lecture on "Love, Courtship and Marriage" at the Christian church tonight.

Company H. will not drill this evening, as the hall has been given to the Minstrels for the evening.

The minstrels will have possession of the drill shed this evening for a full dress rehearsal of tomorrow's program.

Anybody who tries the Wostenholm pocket cutlery sold by the Hawaiian Hardware Co. will not look for any other.

The bicycle races will take place at Kapiolani park Saturday, June 27th, at 3 p. m., under the auspices of the H. A. A. C.

The finest line of dimities, muslins and lawns, in Persian and Dresden patterns, have just been opened at N. S. Sachs'.

Mrs. Ellis Mills, wife of the United States Consul-General, left by the Mariposa yesterday for a visit to relatives in Virginia.

A petition to Minister King is being circulated asking that the Department of the Interior take charge of the street sprinkling.

The BULLETIN is requested to state that Major Bartlett did not leave on the Mariposa yesterday as stated in the morning paper.

Jack Waibel took the S. S. Kinan for a trip to Maui this morning. He will return Sunday and leave by the Australia for the coast.

Theo. H. Davies & Co. have had a brick addition made to their premises on Kaahumanu street which will give them some much-needed room for private offices.

A number of new Chinese dressmaking establishments have lately been opened in town, and what is more they are all crowded with work, their customers in many instances being wealthy white women.

Several Punahou boys were passengers in the steamer Kinan for Hawaii today, and intend to spend the night on deck in the moonlight. They are all musicians, and will pass away the time in singing and playing.
